03

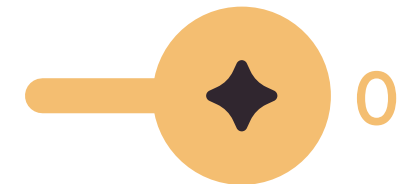

04

Mentorship & Internship Opportunities

Connects students with alumni for career guidance and real-world exposure

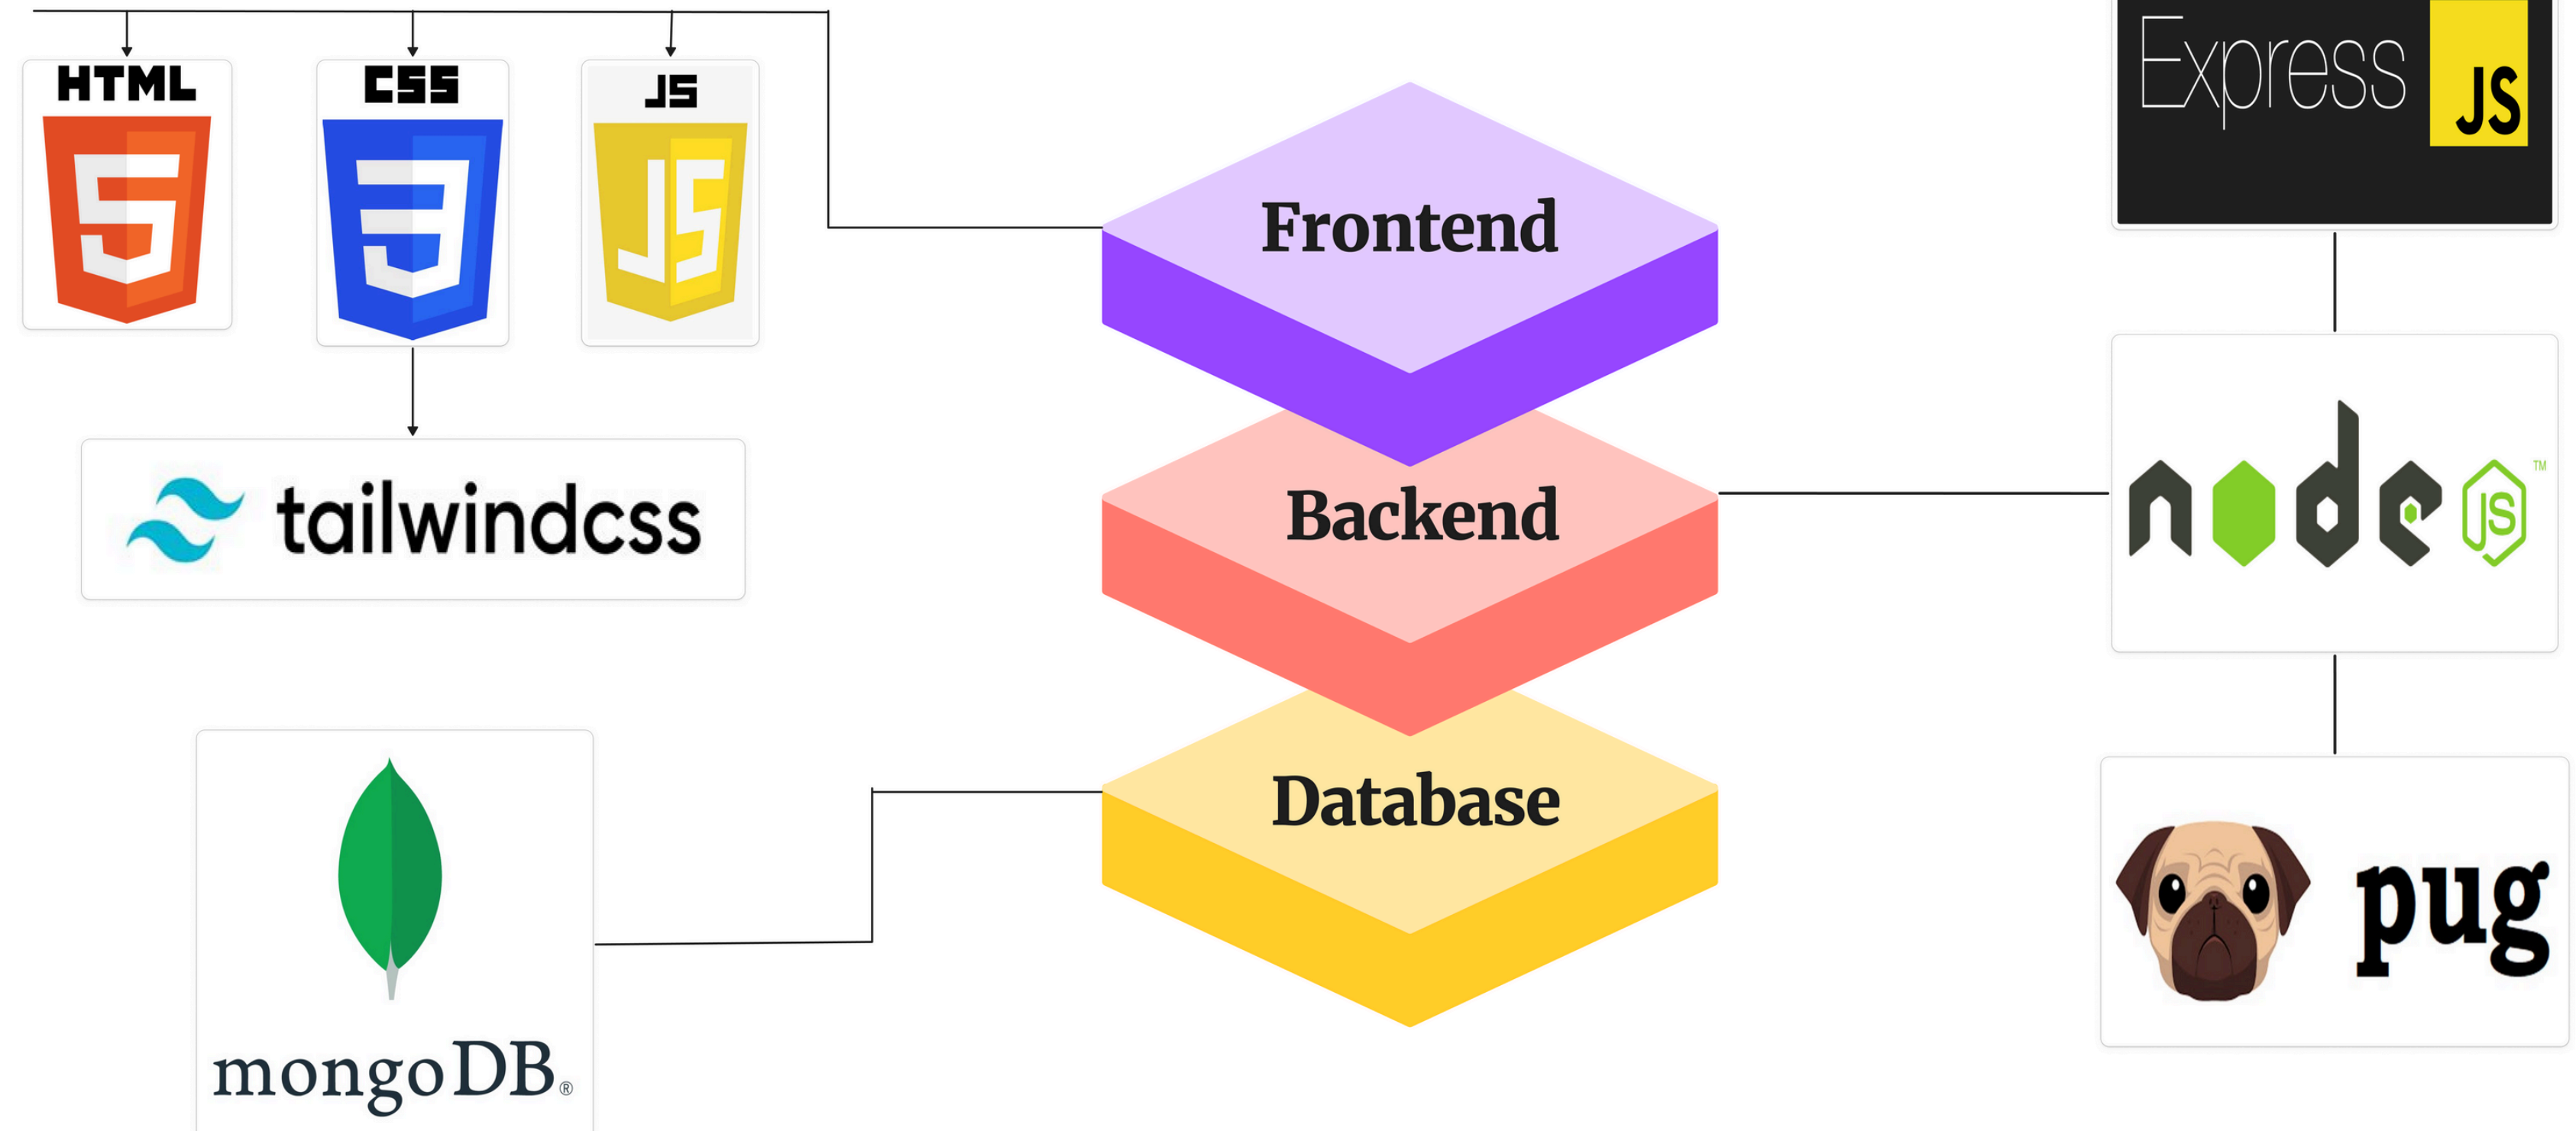

Long-Term Engagement

Builds lasting alumni relationships that strengthen community & institutional growth

05

TECHNICAL APPROACH

FEASIBILITY ANALYSIS

Technical Feasibility

Reliable cloud, scalable databases, and secure protocols enable efficient alumni data management.

Economic Feasibility

Development and maintenance costs are moderate, while the long-term value it adds to placements, and alumni relations.

Social Feasibility

Strong alumni-student interaction for mentorship, careers, and branding makes the solution highly relevant.

POTENTIAL CHALLENGES AND CORRESPONDING SOLUTIONS

Low Adoption and Inactivity

alumni and students may not actively participate, leading to limited engagement.

01

Integrate the platform with official institutional communication channels to make it the primary source of updates.

02

Organize alumni-student events, webinars, and campaigns that drive traffic to the platform.

03

Provide multi-device access (web + mobile app) for ease of use.

Trust and Credibility

Without strict verification, the presence of fake or misleading profiles and job postings could reduce reliability.

01

Implement a robust verification system linked to institutional records and alumni associations.

02

Highlight verified profiles and postings with trust badges.

03

Partner with alumni offices and placement cells to ensure oversight.
